

Letter from Mabel Hubbard Bell to Alexander Graham Bell, July 1894, with transcript

Letter from Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell to Dr. Alexander Graham Bell. Beinn Bhreagh, Victoria County, Cape Breton, N. S. (July 1894) My darling:

Please come home I am tired of being without you. Please come on Wednesday, and you will be all welcome.

Can't the good people close by the house-boat take charge of it, and let Duncan as well as Charles come home. We miss them both dreadfully and the white horses. Mamma and Papa go home in a very few days and I want you home to show them some attention. Your own father and mother will be here after they go and you can look after them again then. But I want you most for your and my own self. I won't send the children, I don't think it sounds inviting from Charles' account and Capt. Frase? leaves at one A. M. What a good fellow he must be to be willing to leave one morning at 3 A. M. and the next at 1 A. M.

It's been hot here, you must have roasted.

Give my love to your father and mother, Uncle and Aunt and say that I am quite ready for them now, and want to see them very much.

Yours ever,
